The journey takes 45 to 50 min. to arrive at the city of Bodrum (<http://www.bodrum-info.org/English/Bodrum/index.htm>), on the Aegean coast of Turkey. Bodrum is located at the site of the ancient Greek city of Alicarnassos (<http://www.bodrum-info.org/English/history/index.htm>), birthplace of the historian Herodotus.

Today's Bodrum is one of the most touristic places in Turkey and is famous for its open-air market. You will have free time to go shopping, visit the medieval castle which is very close to the port, or visit the Mausoleum.

The Mausoleum (<http://ce.eng.usf.edu/pharos/wonders/mausoleum.html>) was considered to be one of the seven wonders of the ancient world and it was the grave of king Mausolos, the king of ancient Alicarnassos.

Upon arrival in Bodrum, you will take a bus tour of Bodrum which last about two and a half hours, taking in among other sites, the Greek/Roman theatre and the castle which you will visit. After this you are free to take in the open-air market sights and do some shopping.

For the trip to Turkey, a list with the passenger's passports details must be available from the day before. For this one-day excursion to Turkey, you will not get a stamp on your passport, but all passports must be kept in the passports' control office in Bodrum and they will be returned to you on departure from Turkey.
