This is the best way to see the island of Kos in just a day. The day will be spent seeing places of natural beauty and hearing about the local history and culture. We begin the tour from Hippocrates' Plane tree, thought to be the oldest tree in Europe.

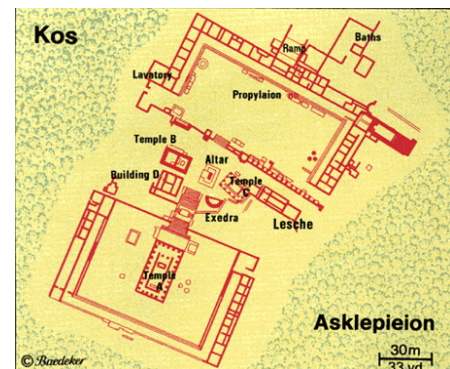

Our next stop will be at the Asklepieion of Kos, the most important of the ancient sites in Kos, which served as a sanctuary, where Hippocrates worked and taught. During the guided tour of the temple there will be time to take pictures of the beautiful site and enjoy spectacular views of the distant Dodecanese islands and Turkey.

After the tour to Asklepieion, the bus tour will continue on to the picturesque village of Zia, situated at the highest point of mount Dikeos. In Zia, we will have time for a short break to enjoy the views and have some coffee, before continuing to Antimachia, our next stop.

Here, in Antimachia, we will visit houses built in Kos traditional architectural style, as well as a windmill, which is still in use. The coach then drives through several villages, holiday resorts, quiet harbors, and scenic spots. After a visit to the picturesque mountain village of Kefalos at the tip of the island, lunch (optional) is served in a tavern on the waterfront at the romantic bay of Kamari. Although in May the sea is a bit cold, there will be time to either stroll around Kamari or to swim at the beautiful beach.
